COMMUNITY MEETING

On last Thursday night there was a well attended community meeting at the High School. The High School students were there in force, and they sang beautiful. An address was made by Dr. O. H. Kee, president of the district board of education. He took the people into his confidence and spoke at length upon the problems, aims, desires and visions of the board as to improved school conditions in the community and the district as a whole. The watchword of the board is economy in every place and in every way where it does not impair the efficiency of the schools.

Prof. G. D. McNeill spoke of the problems which now confront the District High School. The building and equipment was planned to care for one hundred pupils. There is now an attendance of one hundred and fifty. There will be a graduating class of about thirty this year, and this fall will see seventy to one hundred eighth grade graduates seeking admission.

After these speeches there was a general discussion by those present of plans to meet the very acute situation, and a most healthy spirit of co-operation between school officers, teachers and patrons was shown.

The next community meeting will be held at the high school on Thursday May 22.

GEORGE ALLEN

George W. Allen died at the Johns Hopkins Hospital in Baltimore on Tuesday April 29, 1924. For some time he had been troubled with a cancer on his face, but his friends did not know it had reached a stage to endanger his life, and the news of his death was a shock. His age was sixty-three years.

Burial on Saturday afternoon at the Sharp graveyard in the Fairview neighborhood, the service being conducted from his late residence by Rev. Nelson Hill, of the M. E. church. A large congregation was in attendance.

Mr. Allen was a son of the late Captain I. W. Allen. He is survived by his wife who was a Miss Morrison. They have one daughter, Mrs. Ernest Huirey, of Blue Jay, W. Va.

Mrs. Scott Kelly died at her home at Frost on Friday May 2, 1924. She had been in failing health for some time. Her age was about 70 years. Her maiden name was McCay and her home was on Locust Creek. She is survived by a number of children. Burial at the Sharp graveyard near Frost on Monday morning.

TREE PLANTING

The President set aside a week as Forest Preservation Week, and by way of graceful gesture, the Edray District High School, at the suggestion of the Parent-Teachers Association, planted six sugar maples in front of the high school building as memorial trees to George Washington, Thomas Jefferson, Stonewall Jackson, Abraham Lincoln, Woodrow Wilson and Warren G. Harding. The young ladies and young gentlemen prepared a fine exercise and the six memorial trees were planted Tuesday afternoon with becoming ceremony. Rev. H. H. Orr and Rev. George Cleveland, of Marlinton and Rev. Lewis Lancaster, of China, were present and took part. Mr. Orr spoke on the use of the tree and its appeal to men at the different periods of life. Mr. Lancaster spoke of the denuded hills and mountains of China—a treeless country—where families come from drought and flood. A fine young lady read the President's proclamation, other beautiful girls and promising young men read and recited poems and gave orations; they sang together America and an Arbor day song. It was all mighty fine. This is the first concerted step towards a community beautiful.

Who can have fears for the well being of our country when these coming leaders do such things and make such gestures in compliance with the request of our president? I belong to a generation which hogged the accumulated forest of the ages and left barren denuded hillsides—those who come after will leave to the next generation a greater wealth of trees than they inherited and a country restored.

It was a matter of regret on the part of Mr. Hedges, the superintendent of the national forest reserves of this region, that he was unable to be present at the tree planting at the high school Tuesday, but he had a little matter in hand of planting 130,000 trees in another county, and he had to forego the pleasure of staying over for the occasion.

TRACK MEET

The best County High School track meet yet was held at the Fair Ground Saturday afternoon. Fifty or more young high school athletes entered the contests. The proverbial Edray District luck prevailed and the school at Marlinton won sufficient points for first place; Hillsboro second and Greenbank third. Fine weather, and a good crowd.

DIED

GEORGE M. KEE

George M. Kee died at his home near Marlinton on Friday morning May 2, 1924. For some months he has been very ill and his death was not unexpected. He was in his 84th year, having been born January 20, 1841.

The funeral service was conducted from the Presbyterian church on Saturday afternoon by his pastor Rev. H. H. Orr. Burial at the Buckley graveyard. The pall bearers were H. E. Overholt, Zane Moore, W. L. Davis, S. L. Brown, B. B. Slaven, and Calvin W. Price; honorary pall bearers; L. M. McClintic and T. S. McNeil.

Mr. Kee was the son of the late William Kee, who died at the beginning of the Civil War, and Mrs. Ruth McCollam Kee, who survived her husband nearly forty years. The deceased was twice married. His first wife was Jane Falser, and the second, Rachel Moore, who survives her husband. Mr. Kee was the father of nine children, six of whom survive—him, Lock, Eliza, Mary, Clarence, Bessie and Earle. Mr. Kee was a leading citizen of Pocahontas County; a man who lived a well rounded life, as a citizen, soldier and churchman, and came to his grave full of years and honor.

At the beginning of the Civil War Mr. Kee volunteered as a soldier in the Confederate army and for four years he fought bravely and faithfully in Co. A. 36th Battalion, in Virginia, West Virginia, Tennessee, Kentucky, Maryland. He was the last of fourteen Confederate soldiers who volunteered from the Marlins Bottom community.

He was often elected to public office, and had served as Justice, school commissioner, jury commission and member of County Court. He was on the court at the time the present Courthouse was built.

Forty-three years ago this spring the Marlinton Presbyterian church was organized. Mr. Kee was a charter member and he and Andrew M. McLaughlin were elected Ruling Elders. From that time on to the day of his death he took an active part in the management of the church and saw it grow from a handful of faithful people to a powerful organization. He was a faithful supporter of every pastor of this church and his influence for the good has meant much in this community.

This writer knows of no more fitting tribute to the memory of this good man than the testimony of his life long friend, the venerable R. E. Overholt who says that he had known George Kee for more than eighty years—as a play fellow, as a companion in arms for four soul trying years, and as a neighbor—and in all time he had never known him to do or countenance anything of a questionable nature, but that he was always outspoken for whatever was right and of good report.

Newton Crouch a prominent citizen of Randolph county, died at his home at Elkwater on Monday after a long illness. His age was 81 years. His daughter, Mrs. Allan P. Edgar, of Marlinton, was at his bedside.
